Jason Klumb

The U.S. General Services Administration announced the appointment of Jason Klumb to serve as the Regional Administrator of GSA's Heartland Region. As the Heartland Regional Administrator, Klumb will oversee all of GSA's operations in Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, and Nebraska, including management of federal real estate and information technology. Klumb is a Major in the Army National Guard Judge Advocate General Corps, and recently returned to private practice after a year-long deployment to Kosovo as part of Operation Enduring Freedom. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from William Jewell College, a J.D. from the University of Missouri School of Law, and a Master of Science degree from the London School of Economics.

Polivelli Shugart PC welcomed Michael M. Tamburini to the firm as Of Counsel, to practice in the Financial Services Department. Tamburini will focus his practice on loan enforcement, creditor's rights, and creditor bankruptcy representation in state, federal and bankruptcy courts across the nation. He served as a law clerk to the Honorable Frank W. Koger, Chief Judge of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Missouri. Tamburini graduated with his J.D. in 1987 from the Washington University School of Law. He earned an MBA from the University of Kansas Graduate School of Business in 1978 with a finance concentration, and a B.S. degree in business administration from KU in 1977.

Kelvin Fisher

Kelvin Fisher, attorney at South & Associates, P.C., was recently appointed to the City Planning Commission by the City Council of Independence, Missouri, filling an unexpired term ending July 1, 2010. The commission is responsible for the planning and recommendation of public improvements to the city. Fisher practices in the Commercial & Special Assets department out of the firm's Overland Park office.

Morrow, Willman & Klosterman, L.L.C. welcomed their seven Associate Angela M. Wixen. She received her Bachelor of Science degree, with honors from Missouri State University. In 2007, she was awarded her J.D. from the University of Missouri Kansas City, where she was chief justice of the moot court program. Prior to joining Morrow Willman & Klosterman, Wixen worked as an Assistant County Counselor in Jackson County. She will concentrate her practice in the area of insurance defense litigation.
